

Camping

The days are longer and it's getting time
to walk along a trail.
I'll sing a song as I go along
and be happy without fail.

Climbing rocks in the afternoon
swimming in a creek
'though it's getting colder I'll run behind a bolder and well play hide and seek. (Because I'm)

Going on a camping trip. (echo: Going on a camping trip.)
going on a camping trip. (echo: Going on a camping trip.)
Better get ready 'cause
Me Joe and Eddie are going on a camping trip.

Bullfrogs singing when the shadows fall.
Moon coming up in the eastern sky.
Dinner's cooking on the old camp stove.
Just hear those pan fish fry.

Bright stars in the sky above.
Tree tops down below.
Sitting round the campfire its time for bed.
Gonna' toast my marsh-mellow. (You know I'm)

Going on a camping trip. (echo: Going on a camping trip.)
going on a camping trip. (echo: Going on a camping trip.)
Better get ready 'cause
Me Joe and Eddie are going on a camping trip.

Waking up in the early morning
just hear to those bluebirds sing.
Down by the water I thought I saw an otter
like the one I saw last spring.

The days are bright the nights are cold.
We've had lots of fun.
It's time to go and don't you know
I want to come back again. (And I am)

Going on a camping trip. (echo: Going on a camping trip.)
going on a camping trip. (echo: Going on a camping trip.)
Better get ready 'cause
Me Joe and Eddie are going on a camping trip.

It's a great big day.
If I had my way
I'd stay right here so I could hear the birds singing in the trees. (Because I'm)

Going on a camping trip. (echo: Going on a camping trip.)
going on a camping trip. (echo: Going on a camping trip.)
Better get ready 'cause
Me Joe and Eddie are going on a camping trip.
Going on a camping trip. (echo: Going on a camping trip.)
going on a camping trip. (echo: Going on a camping trip.)
Better get ready 'cause
Me Joe and Eddie are going on a camping trip.