

Look In The Air

Every day I look up in the air and see the sky.
Today something special just caught my eye.
It's a cloud - or maybe not.
It can be anything you want.
You just have to use imagination.

Look in the air - what's up there?
Is it a bird, is it a plane, is it a big or little thing?
Look in the air - what's up there?
Is it a dog, is it a cat, is it small or is it fat?
Is it a great big toy for a girl or a boy?
Is it coming down, will it visit our town?

It's a cloud - or maybe not.
It can be anything you want.
You just have to use imagination.

Look in the air - what's up there?
Is it an el-e-phant, or a little bitty ant?
Look in the air - what's up there?
Is it a horse with a tail, or a boat with a sail?
Is it a wagon or a car, or a whatchamacallit jar?
Is it a chim-pan-zee, no wait, I think I see!

It's a cloud - or maybe not.
It can be anything you want.
You just have to use imagination.

Look in the air - what's up there?
Is it a kite in a tree, was it put there for me?
Look in the air - what's up there?
Is it a pig or a hog, or a great big frog?
Is it a cinnamon roll, or a do-nut with a hole?
Is it a sock or a coat, or a little Billy goat?

It's a cloud - or maybe not.
It can be anything you want.
You just have to use imagination.

You just have to use imagination.
You just have to use imagination.